

Adding Specials to your Website

Creating periodic specials for selected products are a great way for you to attract sales and sell end-of-line or overstocked items.

1. Click on Catalog and select Specials
2. Scroll down to highlight the product that you want to set on special
3. Set the special price by either:
 - a. Entering the new special price
 - b. Entering a percentage discount for the product (automatically calculated)
4. (optional) Set the start and end dates for this special
5. Click on Insert to activate your special
